- The courses listed above reflect those for which an exemption may be possible. The applied courses listed below are part of ACAF’s program of studies, but are non-exemptible and therefore must be completed through the ACAF program, and cannot be completed at a post-secondary institution:
  - ▶ Ethics and Workplace Skills
  - ▶ Applied External Audit
  - ▶ Applied Personal and Corporate Taxation
  - ▶ Not-for-Profit
  - ▶ Public Sector Financial Management Practice
  - ▶ Business Applications
- Eligibility for admission to CPA PEP or enrollment in the ACAF Ethics and Workplace Skills course requires at least one of the courses associated with each competency area of Financial Reporting, Performance Management, Management Accounting, Audit and Assurance, Finance and Taxation to have been completed within the last 10 years.
- Unless otherwise noted, all required courses for each CPA preparatory course must be completed for exemption.
- While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of these listings, they are meant for guideline purposes only and do not replace the requirement of having a comprehensive transcript assessment.
